Sir,

I have the honour to refer to your letter No.1164 dated April 20, 1932, and to state that no trace can be found of one J. MacLeman in Shanghai. "Philipi Street" does not exist and there is no thoroughfare in Shanghai, the pronunciation of whose name bears a resemblance to the word "Philipi".

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Officer i/c Special Branch.

Consul-General for the Netherlands,

Shanghai.

Subject (in full) Attached letter ref. J. MacLeman.

Made by D.S. Moore. Forwarded by [illegible]

Regarding the attached letter from the Netherlands Consulate-General seeking information concerning the whereabouts of one J. MacLeman and stating that he is supposed to reside at "Philipi Street, Shanghai". Enquiries made in an effort to locate MacLeman have proved abortive. There is no street in Shanghai bearing the name "Philipi Street", neither have we been able to locate any street with a purely Chinese name, the sounds of the characters of which bear any resemblance to the word "Philipi".

No. 1164.

SHANGHAI, 20th April 1932.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that I am endeavouring to find a certain Mr. J. Mac Leman, who is supposed to live at Philipi street, Shanghai.

No record in C.&S.B. Registry. 26.4.32 N.P.

I am well aware that no street, bearing above name, exists in Shanghai, but the possibility remains that the name has been wrongly rendered into Latin script.

Perhaps you could be able to assist me in tracing the person referred to above.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Chinese Secretary.
